

ASPCA/CSU Shelter Medicine Mini-Conference 2010

When: March 27, 2010 (8:30a-5p)
Where: CSU Veterinary Teaching Hospital Animal Cancer Center Room 221
What: Shelter Medicine Mini-Conference
Who: Shelter staff/volunteers/humane organizations/veterinary students - anyone interested!

Thanks to generous sponsorship from the ASPCA and the CSU Center for Companion Animal Studies, registration is FREE. Thanks to Colorado State University's Veterinary Teaching Hospital for hosting this event, which is accredited for 7 hours of state approved CE. Come join us for a fun day of learning and networking!

Conference Schedule: Topics and Speakers:

8:00a:	Check-In and Breakfast
8:30a:	Welcome & Current research updates	(Dr. Michael Lappin)
9:30a:	Zoonotic Disease in the Shelter	(Dr. Elise Gingrich)
10:30a:	Shelter Triage - Dealing with Emergencies	(Dr. Timothy Hackett)
11:30a:	Assessing and Managing Pain in the Shelter	(Dr. Kursheed Mama)
12:30a:	Lunch & option to tour teaching hospital	(provided)
1:30p:	Being the Animal 411 Service	(Ms. Judy Calhoun)
2:30p:	Customer and Client Care	(Ms. Susan Britt)
3:30p:	Shelters, Veterinarians and the Community	(Ms. Lisa Pedersen)
4:30p:	Open Networking

RSVP (required) by March 1, 2010

Dr. Miranda Spindel
mirandas@aspca.org
(970) 232-9623

(With a total number attending from your shelter/humane organization)